been for various reasons such as, ① NO open position, ② NO money to fill the position, ③ when was the last person hired off of the 2002 list could have been affected by the above reasons to prevent the Department from continuing to hire off of that list.

④ The last person hired off of the list score was 12 points higher than my due to the veteran points. If no veteran points were given and the PAT was given I believe I would of had an opportunity to be hired based on my written points alone.
